

October 29, 2011 | by Commissioners Leonard Leo and Don Argue

Whether or not Iran's top leaders were aware of the recent alleged plot to assassinate a Saudi diplomat in Washington, one thing is clear: They are fully aware of and complicit in severely violating the rights of their own people at home, including the right to religious freedom. They are responsible and must be held accountable.

Click here to read more